

The Power of Connection in Difficult Times

World Psychosynthesis Day 2022

Join psychosynthesis colleagues and friends around the world for this wonderful annual event to celebrate psychosynthesis created by Roberto Assagioli, the event now being in its 5th year. This year's theme is "The Power of Connection in Difficult Times" and we are happy to announce that Anne Yeomans and Theo Dijkman will be the primary speakers, being interviewed together on this delicate and intriguing subject. We end with a lovely, guided meditation connected to the theme led by Ulla Pfluger-Heist. Read more about them below!

The European Psychosynthesis Association, EPA, is hosting this event, which is open to everyone without cost.

Register here without cost and get a zoom link to participate!

You will experience:

- Connection with psychosynthesis practitioners from other countries and continents
- Presentation on this year's theme by Anne Yeomans, US and Theo Dijkman, NL/UK.
- Deepening of the theme together in small groups

- Question and answer session
- Guided meditation by Ulla Pfluger-Heist, GER

We will have two 20 min pauses for movement and replenishing of energy. The total time of the event will be approx. 3 hours 45 mins. It is possible to come and go during the program and also to eat during meetings, since it is a long event!

More about the speakers:

Anne Yeomans has been a psychotherapist and group facilitator for over 50 years. She trained in Psychosynthesis in California and studied with Roberto Assagioli. In the last 30 years Anne's work has been focused on creating and facilitating women's circles in the US, Canada, and in Russia. Anne is a poet, a social activist, and a grandmother.

Theo Dijkman is a psychotherapist and supervisor in private practice, living and working in Scotland. He came to psychosynthesis in the early 1990s. After graduating he was a senior faculty member of the Institute of Psychosynthesis in London for 10 years and continues to work with students completing their MA training.

Ulla Pfluger-Heist is a psychotherapist and group facilitator. In 1986 she founded - together with 4 colleagues - the first psychosynthesis training center in Germany, Psychosynthese Haus. She published two books on psychosynthesis, as well as numerous articles in professional books and journals.

Don't miss the chance to celebrate psychosynthesis with us on this special day!
